FAMILY CHILD CARE HOME SELF-ASSESSMENT GUIDE

This guide is designed to help you do a self-assessment of your home to make sure it is ready for initial registration as a family child care home. By using the guide, you can spot potential problems and correct them before your home is inspected by the Office of Child Care (OCC). The guide does not contain all of the items found on a family child care home inspection report form, but it does include most of them. You should review the family child care regulations (COMAR 13A.15.01-.15) carefully to make sure you understand all of the requirements that must be met before your registration certificate can be issued.

Read each statement listed below and on the following pages, then check YES, NO, or DOESN'T APPLY as appropriate. At the time of your initial application inspection, your OCC Licensing Specialist will review your responses with you and answer any questions you may have.
