Promising Practices

Welcome to the WIDA Early Years Promising Practices module.
Click the "Welcome!" link below to get started.

Welcome

WIDA Early Years has identified 14 Essential Actions: Guidelines for supporting dual language development through standards-based curriculum, care, instruction, and assessment. These actions, outlined in the 2016 Promising Practices Guide, are a call for practitioners, families, administrators, and community members to collaborate in supporting the language development of dual language learners (DLLs) in early care and education (ECE) programs.

Illustrated through a series of stories in a high-quality ECE setting, this module provides suggestions for getting started with Promising Practices.

Promising Practices Implementation Kit

The Promising Practices Implementation Kit contains resources to help early care and education (ECE) leaders, educators and practitioners implement the WIDA Early Years Essential Actions (EAs). Each resource provides a unique and valuable opportunity for you to reflect, identify areas of strength, and plan meaningful next steps for the care and education of multilingual children in your program.

We recommend users begin with the Companion Guide as this resource orients users to the different resources available in the Promising Practices Implementation Kit.
